Midway Of 'Greatest Show' Opens Tonight

SIU Debaters Participate In Novice Tourney

Four SIU debate teams traveled to the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana Saturday, April 11, to participate in a novice debate tournament which was limited to persons in their first year of college debate.

The teams from Southern, two negative and two affirmative, won seven and lost nine decisions, according to Southern debate coach, Dr. Albert Croft.

Eleven schools from Indiana and Illinois took part in the tournament.

The affirmative team of Dick Crawford, Vandalia, and Dick Stove, Collinsville, lost four rounds, bowing to teams from Northwood, De Pauw, U. of Ill., and Bradley. The negative team of Roberta Reznick, Mt. Vernon, and Phyllis Wye, Newton, won over Illinois Normal, and lost to the University of Illinois, Purdue and the University of Illinois at Chicago.

An affirmative team composed of Juanita Novers, Steelville, and Bob Wilson, Carmi, took four rounds, winning decisions over teams from Purdue, Eastern Illinois, Illinois Normal, and the University of Illinois. A second negative team, George Kahn, of Okaville; and Jim Fee, of Herkin, topped decisions over the University of Chicago and Normal, and lost to Purdue and the University of Illinois.

The group was accompanied by Mr. Richard Robinson of the sociology department, and Miss Jo Ann Eblen of the Area Services office, who also served as judges.

Illinois Ordered To Furnish 2009 For Induction

Colonel Paul G. Armstrong, State Director of Selective Service, announced today that Illinois has been ordered to furnish 2009 men for induction into the army in June. This figure represents approximately 1.63% of the national quota of 34,000 men for the year.

Armstrong estimated that about 54% of the inductees will come from Cook County.

Every man found acceptable for service must sooner or later discharge his obligation of service in the military forces, despite differences. Col. Armstrong emphasized. In World War II the Selective Service local boards had to decide who should go to war and who should be left behind to perform vital defense and essential civilian jobs in the national interest. Today, however, the boards have to decide not so much "who" as "when."

During World War II, men between 18 and 45 were liable for service, making a tremendous manpower pool available while under the draft.

Now only the age groups from 18 to 26 can be inducted. "With today's meager manpower resources we are obliged to provide conditions to maintain a large and powerful military establishment," Col. Armstrong said. "It is estimated that less than 2% of the nation's manpower is presently available for induction. Large numbers of our registrants are classified as veterans or as physically unfit and cannot be inducted. In addition, fewer men are reaching the age of induction due to the low birth rate during the depression years."

It is the intent of congress, that every man shall serve his country for two years before reaching the age of 35. Hence, deferments must be regarded only as temporary and can only be granted to those who qualify under a strict interpretation of the regulations. Deferments grant exemption from service, not from the country, they extend a man's liability to 35.

Various booths and concession stands will be open for business.

Several ticket stands will be set up around the drive where students may purchase tickets to the booths or concessions. No money will be accepted at the booths; students must present their tickets to the ticket-taker before they will be admitted to the shows. All tickets will be 10c per person.

Some of the stands along the Midway tonight are ducking stand, ducking darts at balloons, two side shows, basketball throw, bowling at a coke bottle, football throw, golf putting, pig throw, ring toss at golf legs, throwing egg pick at clown, fortune teller, throwing ping pong ball at clown, egg throw, drawing profiles, ring toss around money, and shaving a balloon.

Organizations will also be selling snowballs, ice cream, hot tamales, and cotton candy.

Cot-chairmen of the Midway committee who have planned the event are Richard Coleman and Annie Foley. Their committee members are Jan Evans, Lois Wilson, Christine Young, Pat Woodridge, Louise Taylor, and John Davis.

For the first time in the history of Spring Festival, this year there is a concessions stand sponsored by the Spring Festival Steering Committee. This committee is selling certain concessions which other groups were not allowed to sell. Among the things that will be sold by them are soda, taffy and other kinds of candy, hot dogs, potato chips, and other edibles. These will be sold in one stand.

Cot-chairmen of the concessions committee are Barbara Beidle, and Carl Anderson. Their committee members are Thelma Walker, Malinda Ballinger, Don Belg, Becky McGovern, Gerald McGovern, Laurence Dixon, and Blondell McKinley.

Home Ec Students From 25 Towns Visit Campus

Southern's campus was the meeting place for nearly 600 high school girls and their home economics teachers Saturday as the group attended the annual Home Economics High School day activities.

The group included representatives from 25 Southern Illinois towns: Benton, Cairo, Carbondale, Carrier Mills, Carverville, Du Quoin, East Richland, Edwardsville, Galatia, Golconda, Goreville, Hunt-Busch, Johnston City, Marion, Mt. Vernon, Nashville, O'Fallon, Panna, Red Bud, Salem, Shawneetown, Tamaroa, Thompsonville, Valer, and Zeigler.

Whenever possible the delegations from each town were greeted on arrival by SIU students from that town. Registration began at 10 a. m. Dr. Henry J. Rehn, Dean of the College of Vocations and Professions, welcomed the group, after which an outline of Southern's activities was presented by Miss Mildred Schaefer, acting dean of women.

Skits depicting careers in home economics (teaching, extension work), homemaking, dietetic and institutional management, food in business, and clothing in business were presented by classes in methods of teaching home economics, under the supervision of Dr. Anna Carl Fuls. Campus tours followed lunch at the cafeteria.

'High point in the afternoon was reached when over 100 students participated in a style show. Under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Adams, clothing instructor, the girls wore garments designed as class assignments. Phyllis Wye, junior from Newton, acted as narrator for the show.

Pat Randall, vocational-technical instructor, introduced Dick Gregory and Judson Soars, who entertained the group just before noon. Recreation was directed by Dr. C. C. Franklin, chairman of the men's physical education department.

Climaxing the day's activities, students in the meal planning and table service classes taught by Mrs. Mary Louise Barnes took charge of a tea at the home of President and Mrs. D. W. Morse.

During the day exhibits by the various classes were on display in Old Main.

Parties Choose Slates For Council Election

Voting in Tuesday's Student Council election will be done by classes, according to members of the Student Council who are conducting the election.

Freshmen will vote in Old Main, sophomores will vote in Algehal Hall, juniors, seniors and graduate students will vote in Shroyck Auditorium.

Ballots in this election will be similar to those used in regular civic elections. The parties will be indicated on the ballot. Students may either vote a straight ticket, by marking the box beside the party designation, or they may vote a split ticket by marking the ballot beside each name for which they wish to vote.

This year's freshmen who are running for next year's Student Council on the ISA ticket are:

Juniors To Take English Tests

Have Any Property Missing? The Lost And Found Department May Have It

By Wynne Smith

Losing your mind? We can't help that in any way but speeding up the process. But if you've lost anything else, you may be in luck. The Student Union Lost and Found department has everything from soap to shoes, combs to Plato, and even a few unidentifiable items. The Union thought it was an amusing hobby at the beginning, but missing in all this various and sundry to puzzle over, but since space is limited, the articles are becoming a nuisance.

Anyone having trouble estimating the number of steps needed to get to the third floor of Old Main? Stepping in golfer holes? Mistaking windows for doors? Stop in at the Union and ask for your place. They've got them if you've lost any. There are 25 pairs of glasses and odds and ends of cases in the department. And if you're getting tired of climbing in the window every night, they've probably got your keys there, too. And among other things they have collected: a novel selection of chapuses and caps, scarves, gloves, jewelry (lonely earring, watches, a diamond ring, a high school ring with a V on it, and initials R. W., an ID bracelet—James Lowe, a string of pearls, golf links, and other bracelets and necklaces), a collapsible umbrella, a pair of gym shorts, a jacket, sweaters, women's boots, note-cards, and a pair of gym bloomers.

There are all sorts of fountain pens, mechanical pencils, lipsticks, bill-folds, purses, wrist watches, a combination lock, a library card—Dellifone Jones, and a zipped notebook—Jerry Karch.

David Aiken, who has achieved wide acclaim for his singing in opera, concert halls, radio and television, will be a featured soloist at the Southern Illinois Music Festival here Saturday, May 9.

Aiken is a former resident of Benton, Illinois, and a graduate of SIU. His selections at the Festival will include the "Tenderloin Song" from Carmen, and "With A Song In My Heart."

A case of nearly 3,000 musicians, singers, and dancers from 34 communities will be under the lights during the spectacular program to be held in "Victrola" Auditorium. The Festival, started in 1949, also will include a review of 500 All-Force ROTC cadets of Southern, a brilliant fireworks display, and baton-twirling exhibitions.

This year, for the first time, demonstrations of square dancing will be presented by the 4-H Rural Youth organizations of surrounding counties. A male chorus from Centralia, known as the Centennial Chorus in honor of that city's 100th anniversary, will sing three numbers. Also on the program will be Indian dances by Boy Scouts.

A feature of the Festival will be an exhibition by the Pinckneyville "Sugarbush," a baton marching corps directed by Marguerite "Sugar" Beninati.

A massed elementary school choir will have 1,112 voices and a high school choir group will number 950 students. Elementary and high school bands performing during the Festival will each have 200 musicians. The two bands and the choruses will be combined for the Festival finale.

Flord V. Wakeland, Festival chairman and member of Southern Illinois University's music department, said other traditional program activities to be repeated include the honoring of an outstanding Southern Illinois musician, the Clara F. Pettus Award, and the Clara F. Pettus Award. Mr. Vernon, who has been teaching piano since 1902, will receive the tripartite this year.

Wakeland said planning for the extravaganza, the biggest musical event of the year in Southern Illinois, had begun before the 1953 Festival was over. "This year, the choir will have concessions during the Festival and will usher at the program. Bill Featherly, president of the choir board, is directing their plans."

Carbondale mechanics will conduct special sales, conducting drawings for prizes and give away flowers in their stores to welcome the Festival audience.

During the day, students of piano, voice, and baton twirling will participate in the Southern Illinois Music Contest on SIU's campus, seeking eligibility for the semi-finals of the Chicago-Land Music Festival Aug. 22. The outstanding piano soloist of the contest will be invited to play during the evening program.

Laurence Keney of Mt. Vernon will direct the high school band, and Charlotte Holt of Salem, the high school chorus. The elementary band and chorus groups will be led by Charles Loomis, Centralia, and Geneva Elder, Mt. Vernon.

More About Assemblies

Since the editorial entitled "Assemblies" appeared in the Egyptian we have heard several comments about the assembly program. Several people indicated that they felt there was an implied advocacy that the compulsory attendance which is planned for freshmen students be extended to upperclassmen.

We should like to make it clear that we feel that the assemblies should not be compulsory for anyone.

Without knowing all the plans for the assemblies, and how they will be related to the regular school program — without knowing what the assembly committee will do whenever student members are added to it, we are reluctant to comment on the problem.

From This Beginning

Not many Southern students are aware of the existence of a new committee on campus — the Student Union Planning Committee. But for the last few months this group has been working on a vital problem — planning of the student union building and means to establish a student union building fund.

The committee, composed of representatives from the major student governing bodies — the Student Union Planning Council, Social Senate, and the Student Union Board, has been vigorously pushing for the establishment of such a fund.

They have met with the top administrative heads on campus and have done extensive research on union financing. They have now submitted their work and plans to the student body. To summarize their purpose and ideas:

Our Opinions

Our experience with compulsory assemblies has been connected with the Military. To put it simply, these assemblies weren't very successful. Attendance was good, but it was a good thing to be in the assembly. Attention and receptiveness were another matter entirely. Audiences generally were pretty indifferent to what went on.

The main concern of those who attended was to be sure that they were given credit for attending, that they were comfortable during the program, and that they did not miss the race for the door after they were dismissed.

We hope that the student audience will be more receptive to the entertainers and educators who will appear before them in these assembly programs. We are

Dear Editor:

Last weekend someone took, not only four yearn dolls from a baby, The dolls, given to her by relatives, had been attached to a home economics bulletin board for some five hundred high school students to see. Strangely enough, they were taken by someone on campus after the high school girls had gone home. These dolls (made of material worth not more than a dollar or two all together) have great sentimental value, being my baby's first dolls — girls at that. May I wishfully suggest that they may be easily returned in a container casually left in the Student Union?

Essays and Sallies

A recently unearthed manuscript of a famous Chinese philosopher, Lu Hsiangshan, has just been deciphered and rendered thus: "The summer cometh, the lake runneth; cometh — let's all have fun!" "O Yu has a greatly honored position for these sort of sayings, although some school of thought believes he must have swined!" — from another famous English philosopher, known in some quarters as "Holst" on up to McGinnis.

Which is larger pile was to open the story is told. C.B.S. sent two tickets to Churchill, with this invitation written on them: "Bring a friend — if you have one." The doctored Churchill "didn't" come the first night, but "I'll come the second — if there is one."

Dear Editor:

I believe that when a student has a complaint he should forward it to the Egyptian, for further comment from other students. Well, I have one that I think affects not only myself but a great deal of students here at SIU.

The moon I have is the switching of hours for several courses. To be more specific, dropping all the 10 o'clock classes, or moving them around.

In my own case I cannot attend any afternoon classes till 4 p.m. because I work. I had made out my fall schedule before this edit was published. Bam! I had to rip it up and start anew. The way it seems now, I won't be able to take some of the things I wanted to.

As I understand it the period is to be reserved for assembling. It appears to me that classes could be somewhat more important than assemblies. If these assemblies are to be held every day just what are they to consist of? Also, the way I get it they are to be compulsory for freshmen. I'm not a freshman and so I can't understand why my schedule should be disrupted.

I would like to carry the customary load of 16 to 18 hours. This is pretty hard to do when we live five hours a week to begin with. In order to carry even 14 hours I have to take a 12 o'clock class every morning, go through some physical needs, grow hunger sometime during the day, usually around noon. I fear that I must be included in this category. I don't suppose that I'll have to 12 o'clock, but it seems rather an added discomfort. I imagine that the way I'll hear this is to eat at 10 o'clock. If many others do as I, the assembly will defeat its own purpose which is obviously to get more students to attend these assemblies.

One more thing I would like to mention is that in the story in the Egyptian about cancelling the classes it was said that a board of three students and three faculty members at this decision. I read this faculty members' names but failed to see who the students were. Have they been chosen? Or will they be picked at a later date? If they are to be picked at a later date it wouldn't seem that they had a whole lot to say about what went on. I think that something that affects the students of such should have some student representation. You might say: "No assembly without representation." I don't think that I am alone in this complaint. I have heard the thing hushed over pretty thoroughly and more seem to think that at best it has been slipped in on us in a puerile fashion.

Thanks for listening to my comments. I hope somebody else has some.

Nine Candidates For Degrees Accept Positions

A report on Activities Day by Mary Myers opened Tuesday's Student Council meeting. She stated there was poor response and asked the Council to decide whether or not to have the "Day." It was decided to table the plans until next year.

Petitions for candidates for spring elections were considered. Because of a misunderstanding the deadline for filing petitions was extended to Wednesday, April 29.

Barbara von Behren asked for volunteers to act as marshals and usher for Honors Day. Marshalls will be Louis Hoover, Lewis Wilson, Carolyn Bernhard, and Mary Myers. Jan Evans, Barbara Brady, Andy Marace, and Jerry McIntosh will be ushers.

Members present at this April 28 meeting were Jerry Fear, Barbara Brady, Jan Evans, Carolyn Bernhard, Jan Evans, Louis Hoover, Mary Myers, Barbara von Behren, and Lewis Wilson.

Sphinx Club To Add 15 Members

All 15 new members selected on June 1st will remain in the club until graduation. Five more members will be chosen next fall. The Sphinx club itself is responsible for deciding whether or not a student is worthy of belonging to the group.

Other officers are Wilma Beal, vice-president, and Doug Shepherd, secretary-treasurer.

A PROPOSED BAN on manufacture of slot machines in the state met defeat in the Illinois House of Representatives. The bill by Representative King R. Wheaton and Joseph Peterson of Princeton received only 54 of 75 votes required for passage. Besides applying to slot machines, the bill also included a ban on pinball machines and pinball devices.

Bulletin Explains Assembly Policy

A bulletin to the faculty from the office of the president in regard to student assemblies said in part: "It is recognized that changing the schedule at this time may well inconvenience certain people. It should be pointed out, however, that these inconveniences will be for the fall term only, since schedules for winter and spring of 1952-53 can be revised in a more extensive and leisurely way. Some inconvenience would result at any time a schedule change is made. It is planned to experiment with the new system for one year, during which its virtues and disadvantages can be explored and any necessary modifications made thereafter."

"The five hours released at ten o'clock will be used as follows:

1. One day each week for the freshmen programs.
2. One day each week (presumably Friday) for ROTC drill. This will free students from scheduled drill at other hours during the day.
3. Three hours (ten o'clock class session) to be added to the schedule later. Such class sessions, however, would need to be added with the understanding that their off-days would shift as the program dates shift, and that there will be occasional interruptions for all University assemblies called by the Student Council and for other purposes. During the winter and spring terms the plan will be tried of reserving an additional hour for University Faculty, Faculty Council, college faculty, and other meetings at ten o'clock. The effect of this will be to reduce the number of hours available for classes to two but to permit full scheduling of the three o'clock period which has hitherto had the Thursday hour for faculty and council meetings."

First Spring Festival Held 32 Years Ago

By Gwen Applegate

A check back through the Egyptian files shows that the first Spring Festival was held very early in 1901. President Shreve declared "We have passed the 1,000 mark May 17, 1921, a holiday because, in attendance, and it is time to celebrate." The celebration was known as the "Campus Carnival."

In the May 25 issue of that year, the Egyptian states, "The campus became a tented city overnight, as tents and booths sprang up over the campus." Even a parade was held, which was viewed by three or four thousand people.

The event was such a success that it was held again the following year. Prizes were awarded in typical carnival and country fair contests. The parade was more colorful than the previous one, because more groups entered it.

In 1923, a king and queen were elected to reign during the celebration. The Egyptian of that year expressed hope that the 1923 carnival will not be the last carnival, and that every year SNU students and faculty members will arrange the same type of celebration.

But for some reason, the idea was dropped after 1923. Then, in 1949, the Student Council elected Bill Burns and Bob McCabe as co-chairmen of a Spring Festival. Burns and McCabe formed their committees and formulated plans for the first Spring Festival in 25 years. The carnival was a huge success, and since then has become bigger and better, now being one of the most eagerly awaited of SIU's social events.

Looking Back

By Larry Conner

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS ago the college cats were all wearing "swagger suits" tailored by Sam and Karl, local clothiers. The prospective buyer was assured that "A United States Army officer in his dapper uniform is no more commanding in appearance than you will be after we have outfitted you in one of our swagger suits." Times have changed. There was also a letter to the Kaiser which was delivered over two pages and cursed "Wilkie" soundly for all his dire misdeeds.

THIRTY YEARS ago "Salome" was showing at the Barth theater, but Rita Hayworth wasn't dancing with her seven veils; the star of the show was some gay, mad flapper named Theda Bara. There also appeared in the Egyptian the following gem—"Look, mama, the circus has come to town, and there's one of the clowns." "Hush, darling! That's not a clown. That's just one of those fraternity men."

According to an advertisement in the April 19th, 1913, issue of the Egyptian, new white buck shoes were going to be the rage for the spring year of college men. Times have changed—now the ad would be more appropriate in the New Year's edition.

YOU and the UNIVERSITY

Southern's three undergraduate colleges are sponsoring a program of testing for sophomores of the University on Monday, May 14, and Friday, May 15. All sophomores, those students who completed 48 hours but less than 96 hours at the end of the winter term are required to take these tests. The testing sessions will be scheduled from 8:12 a. m. and from 1:15 p. m. in the University school auditorium.

Sophomores in the college of Liberal Arts and Sciences and in the college of Vocations and Professions will be tested on Monday, May 14. Sophomores in the College of Education will be tested on Friday, May 15.

Examinings are asked to be prompt at each session. Attendance will be checked. Students attending the testing sessions will be given credits explaining any absences from classes. Any student who has a question regarding the testing session should see his academic advisor, or may inquire at the Testing Service office in the Office of Student Affairs.

Results of the tests will be made available to the students taking the tests.

Students will have a chance to compare their achievement as they end of two years with that of other college sophomores across the nation, advisors to assist students in their planning.

Their strong and weak subject matter areas and have information: Testing Service which will assist them in planning their future education and vocational careers. The broad, objective comparative information which the tests provide is intended to supplement, rather than replace, the student's academic record.

The tests are intended to measure one's command of English. This includes a Mechanics of Expression Test, and Effectiveness of Expression Test, and a Reading Comprehension Test. In order to measure general background in five broad subject matter areas, the Co-operative General Culture Test is included in the test battery. It consists of five thirty-minute sections which yield separate scores for History and Social Studies, Literature, Science, Fine Arts, and Mathematics.

There is also an opportunity to measure the student's understanding of recent social, scientific, and cultural developments.

These tests are given each year to sophomores in colleges and universities throughout the nation. It is therefore possible for a student to compare his record with that of students nationally.

The results of these tests will also be made available to the academic college sophomores across the nation, advisors to assist students in their planning.

Southern Salukis Gobber Capesteers

By Jim Kahmann

It was another one of "those" nights for Doc Lingle's track team last Tuesday. The old man's team took off like a beagle hound on a coon hunt, and buried the Cape Indians beneath an 85-46 spurt of chips. Gregory, Nickolaus, and Sprehe were double winners for the Salukis, and after the first four events, there wasn't much doubt about the outcome.

Dick Gregory's sparkling performance was perhaps the outstanding feature of the meet. The lute distance man from St. Louis has stamped himself as one of Southern's all-time greats. With two years left on the cinders, Dick will undoubtedly write his name indelibly in the record books.

Dick's time in the mile wasn't outstanding, as he took first easily with 4:54.2. But it was in the 880 that he rocketed to near record time. He missed Joe McLaferrey's record, but by only a little over a second, as he took the ball mile by 2:00.3 yards, and a time of 2:00.3. McLaferrey's time is in the 1:59's.

Nickolaus won the high jump with a leap of six feet, and the 120 high is 16.2. Leo Wilson, usual doublewinner in the hurdles, didn't run because of a pulled muscle.

Vern Sprehe ran his best 220 of the year, being clocked in 22.2 as he took first place with ease. His winning time in the 100 yard dash was 10.2.

Southern's other top men who took first were Bob Henley in the pole vault, Zamir Bavel in the broad jump, Schneiderhein in the javelin, Bierman in the 440, and McLaferrey in the 220 yard hurdles.

Southern took first place in all but three events, and swept clean three of them, the 100, 120 yard hurdles, and the 880. Jim Davis was the star for Cape with 10 points, the result of two firsts, the discus and shot put.

And right now, it appears just as if it did after the first meet of the season. Southern's only really big weakness lies in the weightlifting department, the shot and discus. If Doc could just count on six points in both these events, it would help tremendously. His distance runners seem to be coming along nicely, and the sprinters likewise.

Moore seems to be going higher and higher in the pole vault, and Bavel is still going away out on the broad jump. Schneiderhein and Carle give the Salukis that added depth in the javelin, and in general the team looks sharp. Doc has reason to expect big things of many of his boys.

The Results:
MILE RUN: Gregory, S.; Markel, S.; and Dickhaus, C. Time: 4:54.4.

440 YARD DASH: Bierman, S.; Koprivica, C.; and Balzer, C. Time: 53.

100 YARD DASH: Sprehe, S.; Shupert, S.; and Nasr, S. Time: 10.2.

120 YARD HIGH HURDLES: Nickolaus, S.; Dean, S.; and McLaferrey, S. Time: 16.2.

880 YARD RUN: Gregory, S.; Armstrong, S.; and Markel, S. Time: 2:00.3.

220 YARD DASH: Sprehe, S.; Hargens, C.; and Nasr, S. Time: 22.2.

TWO MILE RUN: Frev, C.; Pearl, C.; and Dickhaus, C. Time: 11:1.

220 YARD LOW HURDLES: McLaferrey, S.; Koprivica, C.; and Dean, S. Time: 26.5.

SHOT PUT: Davis, C.; Lohr, C.; and Calver, C. Distance: 44'8".

JAVELIN: Schneiderhein, S.; Carle, S.; and Ungerer, C. Distance: 171'11".

DISCUS: Davis, C.; Klosserman, C.; and Schneiderhein, S. Distance: 120'10".

POLE VAULT: (Tie for first) Moore, S.; and Carter, C. Noe, C. Height: 12'.

HIGH JUMP: Nickolaus, S.; Carter, C.; and Blythe, S. Height: 6'.

BROAD JUMP: Bavel, S.; Smith, S.; and Carter, C. Distance: 20'10 1/4".

MILE RELAY: Southern. Time: 3:34.4.

Salukis To Face Redbirds Today

Southern's Salukis will square off against the Redbirds from Normal in the first of a two-day doubleheader this afternoon. The game will kick-off athletic activities for the annual Spring Festival.

The Redbirds have a 5-12 record, 2-4 for the conference. They split a double header with Western last weekend while the Salukis were idle because of rain.

Coach "Al" Martin will probably start Ray Rippey, Donnell Thompson, or Wayne Grandcolas on the mound for Southern. Paul Robinson or Paul Mandel will probably do the hounding for Normal.

Normal will probably field DeWayne in center field, Jerry Turner in right field, Roger Francour in left field, Wayne Hardin at first base, Bill Sarver on second, Bob Riggall at third, Chas. Moser, Jim Bowers, or Bob Anderson will catch.

From all reports the Redbird nine has a well balanced attack and have outbit all the conference teams they have met so far this season. This will be Southern's first conference game since they defeated Michigan Normal here April 17.

SIU Tennismen Lose Two Tilts

As the country gentlemen said when he threw away his cornucopia, "It's been rough." It's also been rough for Coach Jim Wilkinson's tennis squad, which in the last 10 days have suffered defeats at the hands of two of the best teams in the Midwest.

The Salukis traveled to Washington University on April 22, where the inhospitable Bears joined them, 6-1. To add insult to injury, the Braves from Bradley found the Salukis' home courts to be happy hunting grounds and beat the SIU team, 8-1.

In both meets SIU's points came as if this stick didn't hurt. Against Washington, Charles Pisoni and Bruce Lape collaborated to win 12-10 and 6-3. Against Bradley, Gene Hale and Bill Flevorn 6-2 and 6-1.

Only two singles players managed to win a set, and these came in the Bradley meet. Bill Fly came out on top in one set, 6-1. And Paul Prussman did likewise, 6-3.

Other players seeing action in the two meets were Ernie Floata, and Bill McClure.

Bad Mannered Bulls Get Tough Treatment

By Don Primis

During the Spanish Inquisition, the clerics of the land got a large charge of slaughtering people that they didn't particularly appreciate. But it didn't take too long for the wizards of finance to determine that somebody had to be kept alive to produce the bulls for the state.

BAD BUSINESS FOR BULL.
The bull actually doesn't have a chance; sooner or later somebody is going to make hamburger out of him. He doesn't even have the satisfaction of getting drunk before he gets butchered. But it's all in the game.

PICADORES PRICK HIM.
The picadores are the men on horseback armed with lances. Their object is to wound the bull and make him angry.

Once in awhile, much to the dismay of the picadores and their horse, the bull gets too angry and goes himself a picadore. Or a horse. It's called "ake much difference to the bull."

BANDERILLEROS BARB HIM.
After the picadores do their work, the banderilleros come in and

Davies, Jaquith Write Article For Journal

Dr. Dorothy Davies, chairman of the women's physical education department at Southern Illinois University and Linda Jaquith, graduate student, are authors of an article, "Look at Your Bulletin Board," which appears in the April issue of the Journal of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

The United States once had three Presidents in a month. William H. Harrison succeeding Van Buren in office William Henry Harrison, 1841, March 4, 1841, and being succeeded 40 days later by Tyler, April 6, 1841, died on his death by typhoid fever, April 6, 1841, and Roosevelt, 1920.

For 100 years Presidents elected Presidents in a month. William H. Harrison succeeding Van Buren in office William Henry Harrison, 1841, March 4, 1841, and being succeeded 40 days later by Tyler, April 6, 1841, died on his death by typhoid fever, April 6, 1841, and Roosevelt, 1920.

Golfmen Drop Two Matches

The Salukis dropped their last two golf matches by identical margins — 7-5, 7-6; however, they lost to Evansville 13-15 in last hole scoring Tuesday. The Salukis also lost to Bradley last Saturday by a score of 7-5 in a match that was decided on the hole of the final evensome.

LONG PUTT COST MATCH

Bob Henley missed a 35 foot putt after blasting out of the lake. If Southern had won that evensome, it would have enabled them to pull into a tie with Bradley. The Salukis' one bright spot was Chuck Newkirk's brilliant 75 which was good for three points. Wayman Heard got one point and Jim Wilson and Bob Henley each earned 1/2 point for the Salukis.

LINEUP CHANGED

In Tuesday's match against Evansville's Aces, Holder reorganized his lineup and pined Bob Henley against Bill Harel of the Aces. Although Henley shot a very respectable 79, Harel shot a blazing 73 to take the rounds. Evansville's four man team shot medal scores of 73, 76, 76, and 83.

NEWKIRK — HEARD OFF PAR.
Southern had scores of 75 (Jim Wilson), 79 (Bob Henley), 81 (Wayman Heard and Chuck Newkirk). Both Newkirk and Heard were off stride. Evansville's Harel, Hartman, Crall and Stein took low ball victories for 3-0 point edges in each foursome. The Salukis will meet Evansville again today at 1:30 on the Jackson Country Club links. Southern now has a record of one win, one tie and two losses.

A thousand leading school men of southern Illinois met in Carbondale June 1-3, 1868, and again in Centralia September 1-3 the same year to promote establishment of a normal school in southern Illinois. Carbondale outbid other claimants for the school which today is Southern Illinois university.

Sport Spiel

By Bob Poos

Plenty of action poised in the spring division of sports. The High School Football season is in full swing, and the track season is in full swing. The track team seems to be on the march to a good year.

Ole debbil train cancelled another baseball game. We're going to get frustrated, if the baseball team doesn't hit it lucky pretty soon and get in some games.

GOLFERS LOSE TWO
The golfers have had a little rough luck lately with two losses in a row. They can still recoup though. It's kind of surprising that more interest isn't taken in golf here at SIU.

There are several excellent courses around here and golf is one game that doesn't limit participation. Most anybody strong enough to tug a few clubs can play. Not that it isn't a good exercise. Golf can be strenuous enough for anybody if you want to work at it. "Go capture putt," as the golfers have referred to here in Southern Illinois can be a lot of fun. However, it can be frustrating too. If you're like me the air sometimes turns blue on conditions other than climatic on individual swings at the little white cup.

The tennis team has a chance to even up the score with two wins and two losses. All they have to do is defeat the St. Louis U. Billikens Saturday. This may be a tough undertaking as the Billikens are said to be pretty rugged.

SPRING FESTIVAL SPORTS
Plenty of activity at the Spring Festival sportsweek too. During the festival week there will be two baseball games, a tennis match and a golf meet. The schedule for these contests is as follows: Baseball May 1 the Salukis tangle with Normal in the first game of a conference doubleheader. Golf—the golfers will fight it out with Evansville on the local links. The tennis team will tangle with St. Louis and the baseball club will play the second game of the doubleheader. Also during this week the track team will journey to Normal to run against the

HOME RUN IS DOWNFALL.
It looks like this modern age just doesn't pay off sometimes. At first his was the case for seven high school boys from Perth Amboy, N. J. Photography was their down fall. It seems that they decided to "skip school and go to the opening game at Yankee Stadium."

At some point, referred to as the home run hit into the stands near where they were sitting. An alert news photographer equipped with a high powered lens on his camera snapped a picture of the ball. He took the ball all right. He also got a picture of the folks in the background.

Next day the picture ran in the New York Herald Tribune. The principal of the boys school saw it and hailed them up on the carpet. They got an eight day ban on extracurricular activities. It seems like crime just doesn't pay.

CLOSING COMMENTS
In closing I'd like to say that no matter how good or how bad you are in sports or anything, remember that hard work and practice make the difference.

Ben Hogan who is said to be one of the greatest golfers of all time recently won the Masters tournament with the best score ever turned in. Although Hogan is one of the best he had to practice for thirty days, eight hours a day to win the match. Determination such as this is what makes you great in sports or anything else.
